THE HAIKU CALENDAR COMPETITION 2007

ADJUDICATOR'S REPORT

Many thanks to everyone who entered this 9th annual contest, and to those who helped to publicize what is an internationally established annual haiku 'event'.

This year 745 entries were received from 190 entrants residing in 18 countries across 4 continents: USA (87 entrants), England (55), Canada (13), Australia (8), New Zealand (7), Ireland (3), Scotland (3), Wales (3), Japan (2), Bosnia and Herzegovina (1), Bulgaria (1), Croatia (1), Denmark (1), France (1), Israel (1), N. Ireland (1), Philippines (1), and Serbia (1).

As ever, in the initial stage of adjudication each poem entered faced one simple criterion – its quality as a haiku. The shortlisted haiku were then judged according to their originality and relevance to their assigned months, particularly with regards to seasonal references.

With 52 haiku by 35 authors, the resulting 2008 calendar continues a rich tradition exploring and celebrating the continuing relevance of seasonal references in English-language haiku. The existence of the calendar, which is only made possible by participation in this contest, also allows us to appreciate individual haiku such as these:

almost spring
she tells the whole story
in a single breath

John Stevenson

a butterfly
so long at my window
summer dusk

Carolyn Hall

katydid chorus
nothing that can't wait
until tomorrow

Christopher Patchel

All Souls'
a wasp returns
to the lintel

Helen Buckingham

Many thanks again to all entrants for making both this contest and the calendar a worthwhile, and ongoing, experience. I would like to congratulate all the winning poets, and hope that their haiku will be widely appreciated throughout the coming year.
